

RAISULI WILL KILL McLEAN BY INCHES, LATEST IN TANGIER

Bandit's Declaration for Revenge Stirs Up Diplomatic Circle.

TANGIER, Oct. 22.—The bandit Raisuli's open declaration that he intends to "kill Caid McLean by inches" in revenge for France's interference in the negotiations for the captive's release, has created a tremendous uproar in diplomatic circles.

The Sultan is powerless to act against Raisuli, but the British representative has sent his government full particulars of the situation and news that an English fleet on the way is hourly expected. News of Raisuli's decision was brought here by former followers of the bandit. There have been heavy desertions from his ranks as a result of the fear that he has at last gone so far that the powers will not rest until his hand is exterminated.

The defeat of eight regiments of the Sultan's soldiers and the capture of his commander-in-chief, Kaid Busha Bagdani, in a battle with Pretender Mula-Hadid October 17, has so encouraged the pretender's followers that the entire south is rising and desperate fighting is looked for between the French troops and the tribesmen.

The French generally think the powers will gain by aiding Sultan Abd-el-Aziz financially. It is doubtful if he can long hold even his capital against the rebels unless assisted with liberal loans.

MANY CONTRIBUTE TO AID OPERATORS

Committee of Central Labor
Union Reports Upon Its Work.

The special committee of three appointed at the last meeting of Central Labor Union to solicit contributions from the eighty affiliated unions for the striking Central Laborers' fund, reported to the central body last night, through Chairman James P. McHugh, of the Stonecutters. He said that the committee had been cordially received everywhere they had gone; that they had visited twenty-one organizations, and had been given liberal sums. He asked that the committee be enlarged to six so as to cover the field quickly.

Chairman McHugh pointed out two striking instances where contributions had been made. The committee went to Costello's Hall and found a meeting of apprentices in session. The boys ranged in age from fifteen to eighteen years, and made $5 to $8 a week. There were about twenty of them present. They contributed $15. By mistake the committee called on the Woodmen of the World, thinking it a labor organization in session. They were invited in, given the floor to state their case, after which every member present contributed a dollar.

When the committee completes its work this week they will have collected a fund that will probably reach $3,000 or $4,000.

J. L. Redler, delegate to the American Federation of Labor convention that meets in Norfolk next month, was instructed to bring to the attention of that body the efforts of the Manufacturers' Association, through the local employers' association, to establish the open shop in Washington and ask the American Federation of Labor to take some official cognizance of the matter. He was further instructed to advocate the strict autonomy of all trades.

REFORMED SYNOD DEBATES MISSIONS

Extension of Work in Japan
Referred to Board—Session Ends.

Despite eloquent appeals from the Rev. A. K. Faunt and the Rev. W. E. Lampe for an extension of the missionary work which the Reformed Church has been doing in Japan, before the annual session of the Potomac Synod, which closed yesterday at the Grace Reformed Church, at Fifteenth and O streets northwest, it is probable that the board of missions, to which the matter has been referred, will vote against the movement.

The two men have been engaged in missionary work at Sendai, Japan, for a number of years, and they asked for more money to carry on the work. Their appeals were answered by a discussion in which it was alleged that from now on it rests with the natives who have been won to Christianity further to evangelize Japan.

The committee on finances reported that $15,000 of the $40,000 which is to be raised by the Potomac Synod before the next meeting has already been secured. The synod voted $2,500 to supplement the deficiency this year in the endowment fund of the Lancaster Theological Seminary. Votes of thanks were passed by the Synod to Postmaster Adams for mail facilities and to the Rev. Dr. Schick, pastor of the Grace Reformed Church, for the hospitality shown the delegates.

The synod decided upon Hanover, Pa., as the next meeting place, on October 30, 1908.

SYLVESTER INSPECTS TERMINAL STATION

Police Will Be Detailed for Special Duty Day and Night.

With a view of furnishing adequate police protection when the Baltimore and Ohio begins running trains from the new Union station, Major Sylvester yesterday made a tour of inspection of the new terminal.

As only the east end of the station will be thrown open to the public on this date, the heaviest traffic will be along the Delaware avenue approach. At present this street is very poorly lighted from the street car tracks to the station, and Terminal Agent G. W. Martin has requested Major Sylvester to have policemen stationed along the highway after dark.

Owing to the fact that street car tracks have not been laid on any of the approaches to the station, it is expected that there will be a large demand for hack and carriage hire. Policemen will be stationed at the hack stand to see that the drivers comply with the law, and do not overcharge strangers. Hack Inspector Catts will have general supervision over the vehicles.

It is expected the main rotunda and waiting-room will be opened to the public November 27. On this date all the lines now coming in at the Sixth street station will begin using the new terminal.

Detectives Horne and Sears will be detailed in plain clothes at the new station.

Mabelle Corey Found Inspiration For Nature Fake

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Mabelle Gilman Corey, wife of William Ellis Corey, who divorced the wife of his youth to wed the actress, is to become an authoress. She will write a nature book.

Mr. and Mrs. Corey have left for New York. They were in Chicago for twenty-four hours, having returned from Watersweet, Mich., where they spent three weeks hunting.

"Is it true that you are going to enter the field of nature literature?" Mrs. Corey was asked.

"I am thinking of it. I do not see why I should not. I am sure I could do it with less contradiction than some of the nature writers. I want it to surprise my friends. It will be such a pleasant way of spending an hour or so a day. I love nature."

Mrs. Corey then told about a frog she had killed while out in a boat last week. She said when she went to pick it up "it had both front paws crossed on its breast, praying."

VETERAN WRITER ENDS HIS LABORS

Charles H. Allen, of Washington Post, Dies After Long Illness.

The Rev. Dr. G. C. F. Bratenahl will conduct funeral services for Charles H. Allen, who died Monday morning at the home of his son, the Florence apartment house, after a protracted illness. The services will be held in Mt. St. Alban's Church, on the Tenleytown road, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be at Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Allen was well known and highly respected in newspaper circles, having been for many years connected with various publications throughout the East and Middle West. After making a brilliant record for himself during the civil war as a member of the Thirtieth Massachusetts Infantry, Mr. Allen went to Indianapolis, where he became associated with the Indianapolis Journal.

After leaving that place he was at other times on the staffs of the Terre Haute Express and the Evansville Courier, respectively, and a few years later came to Washington as the congressional correspondent of several Western papers. Other publications with which Mr. Allen was at different times connected are Public Opinion, the National Republican, and the Washington Post.

He is survived by only one child, Charles Gordon Allen, vice president of the District and Washington Title Insurance Companies, of this city.

WANT MORE PAY FOR MAIL CARRYING

Ship Owners Object to Reduction Made by Postal Union.

The Postoffice Department is receiving numerous complaints from ship owners protesting against the reduction in the rate of pay allowed by the department for the transportation of the foreign mails.

Following the recent reduction in the rates of foreign postage, the Postoffice Department, in conformity to the action of the postal union, reduced the pay of the ships from 44 to 35 cents per pound for first-class matter, and from 44 to 35 cents per pound on all other classes.

Second Assistant Postmaster General James T. McCleary said today that it would be impossible for the department to meet the demands of the ship owners, as the United States postal laws provide that the rate of transportation shall be that fixed by the postal convention.

"Should the ship owners continue to demand an increase," said Mr. McCleary, "it will be necessary to let the contracts to other ships, as it is not possible under the law to pay more than we are paying under the new rate."

The international reply coupon is said by postal officials to be working well, and in a large measure meeting a long-felt want. The coupons may be purchased at postoffices for 6 cents each, and upon presentation at a post-office in any country represented in the new postal convention, will entitle the person presenting it to receive, without charge, a postage stamp of that country equivalent in value to a 5-cent United States postage stamp.

NEW POSTAL PRIVILEGE TAKES WITH PEOPLE

The rule recently promulgated by Postmaster General Meyer permitting the use of postage stamps of any denomination to secure special delivery privileges is working well.

Postmaster Barnes, of the Washington office, estimates that about one-fourth of the special delivery letters are now stamped with the new stamps. Mr. Barnes finds also a considerable increase in the use of the new stamps, which is attributed to the new regulation.

"The public should keep in mind," said Mr. Barnes, "that the special delivery fee is 10 cents, in addition to the regular postage charge. When the ordinary stamps are used the words 'special delivery' should be written directly under the stamps."

HARRY THAW SELLS INTEREST IN BIRTHPLACE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 22.—Harry Kendall Thaw has disposed of his interest in the historic house that was his birthplace. Four deeds bearing his signature and that of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw were filed yesterday before County Recorder John W. Fairman, transferring one-third of the undivided interest in the Thaw estate, at Fifth street, to Edward and Josiah Copley Thaw, Mrs. Margaret Thaw Carnegie, and Alice Cornelia Seymour, Countess of Yarmouth. The consideration is $125,000.

Coal Prices Won't Go Up, Assert Capital Dealers

There Will Be No Advances This Winter and Now Everybody Can Breathe Freely Once More.

There will be no advance in the price of anthracite coal to consumers in this city the present winter.

Present prices will prevail unless a serious labor strike should tie up the Pennsylvania collieries, or an unusually severe winter cause an unprecedented demand that could not be promptly met. In either event there would be a quick and decisive advance, controlled by the scope of the tie-up at the mines, or the length of the intense cold weather.

At the present time labor conditions in the anthracite field are settled, and there is no prospect in sight of any labor trouble that will affect the price of coal. All of the anthracite operators have a large stock of anthracite, and all of their mines are working full time. The only thing at this time that can in any way affect the supply promptly reaching consumers at the present ruling prices is a car shortage on the trunk lines coming out of the anthracite fields.

No Advance in Prices.

Annually at this season of the year—the advent of the first cool weather—the commercial alarmist announces that there will be an early and sharp advance in the prices of coal. He has made his report for this season, and his views find many believers.

To learn the true situation of the coal market a Times representative called on wholesale and retail dealers yesterday to see if there was any prospect of an advance in prices. The unanimous opinion of all the dealers seen was to the effect that there will be no advance, and that present prices will prevail this season.

At the offices of the Allegheny Coal Company, one of the largest dealers in the city, it was said that there would be no advance this winter; that there had been no advance in prices for six years, since the anthracite commission, appointed by the President, settled the great strike, and which fixed prices as they now exist. That scale of prices fixes the retail price to consumers from September to April at $7.25. In April the price drops to $6.75, then as the season advances through the summer an advance of 10 cents a ton is made for each month until the opening of the winter season.

May Have Summer Prices.

William Zeh, of the William Zeh Company, said that there would be no advance in the price of anthracite.

"There is no real reason why there should be an advance in the price of anthracite coal here this winter," said Mr. Zeh, and if we have as warm and open a winter as we had last season you may expect to see anthracite selling at summer prices—$6.75.

Other dealers seen by The Times representative, and who expressed themselves as seeing no reason for an advance in prices, were Fishbaugh & Son, The Home Ice Company, Johnson Brothers, V. Baldwin Johnson, and the Rebert-Garner Coal Company.

Speaking for the soft coal market, the manager of the Consolidated Coal Company, the largest dealers in soft coal in this market, operating large mines in Cumberland, Md., Pennsylvania, and West Virginia, said the usual small fluctuations in prices of soft coal would prevail, which would be regulated by local coal conditions of supply at the mines, and the supply of cars for moving the output of mines.

Tells How to Make a Splendid Mixture at Home Which is Said to Clean the Blood of Waste Impurities By Making Kidneys Filter.

A leading health journal, in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood," prints in a recent issue the following: "Fluid Extract of Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime."

A well-known local druggist who is familiar with this prescription states that it is harmless, being composed of simple ingredients which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy.

It cleans the blood of all impurities and nourishes the blood. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils, and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down, debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Kargon and Extract of Dandelion works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, acid, and other impurities that cause disease. It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

This prescription is better than the usual patent medicines, which are in the most part alcoholic concoctions. The ingredients cost but little and are easily mixed at home. Every man and woman here should make some up and try it if they feel their system requires a good blood medicine and tonic.

The Kargon to clean the kidneys and vitrify them, they can clean the blood. Sarsaparilla to make new, rich blood, and Dandelion to tone the stomach, clean the liver and make it active and relieve constipation is the way the prescription acts and so mildly and gently that one does not consider they are taking a medicine.

WHY HEURICH'S BEERS SHOULD BE YOUR BEERS

COULD you acquaint yourself with the methods employed at most breweries, then see how faultlessly Heurich's Beers are produced, you'd readily recognize the wisdom of patronizing places that serve MAERZEN, SENATE AND LAGER. Brewing science provides no safeguard for purity which is not employed at Heurich's. Cleanliness guides every process—the very air in which MAERZEN, SENATE and LAGER are cooled is FILTERED. Months are consumed in maturing the beers. After entering the glass-lined aging vats there is no chance for air or germs to contaminate these beers. They are forced through hermetically sealed pipes into steam-STERILIZED kegs and bottles. That's why it's so important that you get the BREWERY BOTTLING.

Be on the SAFE SIDE—drink Heurich's at home and at bars.

25 "Maerzen" and "Senate," 6 to 10 months old, $1.75 case of 2 doz. Heurich's "Lager," about 4 months old, $1.50 case of 2 doz; 50c rebate for empty bottles. Delivered in unlettered wagons if desired. Phone W. 37.

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect it.
Prevalence of Kidney Disease.
Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.
